

ALLEYS & EQUIPMENT

Home Industry News Catering & Inflight Service
Flying Food Group earns three Virgin Atlantic awards

October 12 2016 03:57 PM | By Melissa Silva

Tags: Flying Food Group, Virgin Atlantic, Global Supplier Awards

Flying Food Group (FFG) has earned a trio of Global Supplier Awards from Virgin Atlantic for 2016. The awards presented to FFG include: Overall Cabin Performance - Upper Class, Most Innovative Culinary Team and Account Manager Recognition (Rex Nichols, FFG JFK Account Manager).

The FFG team with award plaques at the Global Supplier Awards

Jim Ball, FFG VP of Sales and Service says there is a thriving connection between Virgin Atlantic and FFG, with FFG servicing the airline at the following locations: EWR on daily flight to LHR; IAD on daily flight to LHR; JFK on 5 flights daily to LHR; MIA on 7-14 flights weekly to LHR; and MCO with 3-5 flights daily to Gatewick and other airports.

The awards were presented last month at the Virgin Atlantic Global Catering Awards event in Crawley, UK. FFG Executive Chef Henri Alcade, FFG VP Research and Development, led the culinary and production teams attending the awards event.

Call Rob White on 00 44 1453 797 938

