Flying Food Group chalks up a range of successes

MARCH 7, 2017

Xiamen Airlines has chosen Flying Food Group JFK to cater its new, three-times weekly route between New York JFK and Fuzhou, China. JFK is Xiamen's second US gateway.

Emirates Airline has chosen Flying Food Group IAD to cater its daily flights between Washington Dulles and Dubai. Emirates switched to FFG at IAD as of March 1, 2017. FFG IAD is a 48,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art kitchen sited less than five miles from Dulles International Airport. The facility debuted in December 2015 servicing launch customer Virgin Atlantic.

FFG IAD customers now include Emirates, Royal Air Maroc (RAM) three times weekly to Casablanca; Ethiopian Airlines, seven times weekly flights Addis Ababa, Lufthansa, twice daily flights to Frankfurt/Munich and Virgin Atlantic—daily to London.
