FFG adds Xiamen Airlines service and earns award

By Rick Lundstrom

Xiamen Airlines has chosen Flying Food Group (FFG) to cater its new U.S. route between Los Angeles and Qing Tao, China. The three-times-weekly service launched December 11.

FFG began catering Xiamen's new three-times-weekly service between Los Angeles and Xiamen, China in June 2017. FFG also caters Xiamen's three-times-weekly service between New York JFK and Fuzhou, China. That route launched in February 2017.

In December, Xiamen presented FFG with a special award for "outstanding performance and service." The special award confirms the successful FFG-Xiamen partnership, noted Nicolas Rondeau, FFG Executive Vice President, Airline Sales.
